CROWDS THROG CITY'S CHURCHES EASTER SUNDAY

Day Filled With Activity as Hundreds Attend Numerous Services

MANY MEMBERS ADDED

Cantatas, Presented in Evening, Win Praise as Auditoriums Are Filled

Circleville concluded a successful week of services Sunday evening, with large crowds attending cantatas and preaching services. Many children were baptised during Sunday services while numerous others united with the respective churches. Rev. T. C. Harper of the United Brethren church reported 19 children baptised and eight joined the church Sunday. Thirty-two persons have been added to the church roster during the conference year. Rev. Herman A. Sayre of the Methodist church baptised 12 and received a class of 23, making his additions for the year reach 43. Trinity Lutheran church had 243 communicants Sunday after a large crowd of 307 took communion at Thursday evening services.

All Churches Filled

Nearly all churches were filled for their Easter morning rites, sunrise services being conducted by several congregations.

The United Brethren Sunday school number 334 persons; the usual attendance is 225. Rev. Harper said the collection goal of $400 set by his church was surpassed by $70.53. The Methodist Sunday school reported its attendance 100 above normal. Rev. E. S. Toensmeier declared his morning services, Sunday school and church, were attendance by the largest crowds of the year.

Sciotto Commandary Knights Templar heard an inspiring address by Rev. L. C. Sherburne of St. Philip's Episcopal church at morning rites.

Cantatas Presented

Cantatas were presented Sunday evening by Methodist Episcopal and United Brethren vested choirs with auditoriums of both churches well-filled. Directors, organists and singers in both programs were lauded. Mrs. J. P. Moffitt directed the Methodist choir. It was accompanied by Hunter Chambers. The prelude and the offertory were played by Dwight Weller, violinist. Troy Belden was in charge of the United Brethren choir with Miss Nellie Denman the accompanist.

Ousted General Hagood Restored

Army Man, Suspended for Remarks About Relief Money, Sent to Chicago Command in Orders of President

WASHINGTON, April 13.—(UP)—The War department, "by direction of the president," reinstated Maj. Gen. Johnson Hagood as a corps area commander today after seven weeks of political controversy over his removal for criticism of New Deal relief administration.

The general was designated commander of the 2nd corps area with headquarters at Chicago—a post of equal rank with the commander of the eighth corps area from which he was removed.

The reinstatement order was couched in the same terse terms as his removal order—both "by direction of the president."

The text of today's order to Hagood read:

"By direction of the president, Maj. Gen. Johnson Hagood, U. S. A., now awaiting orders at his home, Charleston, S. C., is assigned to command the sixth corps area, to take effect May 2, 1936 and will proceed at the proper time to Chicago, Ill., and assume the command to which he is assigned."

CONDON CALLED BY GRAND JURY

Jafsie Wanted to Testify in Wendel Investigation

NEW YORK, April 13.—(UP)—Dr. John F. (Jafsie) Condon indicated today that he would refuse to comply with the request of the Mercer-co N. J., grand jury that he testify before it about the kidnapping and murder of Charles A. Lindbergh Jr.

Meet President

The reinstatement followed criticism in congress of the removal order and also followed two conferences between Hagood and President Roosevelt.

Gen. Frank McCoy, whom Hagood will replace at Chicago, will take command of the 2nd corps area at New York, May 1, replacing Maj. Gen. Dennis Nolan, who reaches the statutory retirement age of 64 on April 30.

May Launch Campaign

Tonight's address, expected by many to touch on political controversy now centered on the New Deal's Works Progress Administration and the president's proposed tax plan, was regarded as launching the president's pre-convention campaign program.

A week from Saturday he goes to New York to speak before the National Democratic club. Late in May he plans a swing down to Texas for that state's centennial celebration, probably making several addresses during the trip including one at Little Rock, Ark.

Treasury is Preparing To Speed Bonus Payment

Morgenthau to Name 300 First Class Postoffices to Cash Bonds and Checks of War Veterans

WASHINGTON, April 13.—(UP)—The Treasury department today prepared the huge money machine which will turn out cash for the veterans bonus at top speed beginning June 15.

Treasury officials, acting on the assumption that a large majority of veterans will desire to convert their service bonds into cash immediately, arranged to designate almost 300 first and second class postoffices throughout the country to act as disbursing offices.

Details of the plan are expected to be announced shortly by Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, Jr.

Instructions will be given veterans as to the simplest way to convert their service bonds into cash.

Number Not Certain

The exact number of postoffices which will be designated as disbursing offices has not been decided. Neither is there available a list of the cities in which they will be located. In general, however, it was believed that practically all first class postoffices and a number of second class postoffices would be authorized to pay out cash.

Some treasury estimates were that at least $1,500,000,000 in bonus cash will be paid out of treasury funds between June 15 and Sept. 1.

Arrangements for getting the service bonds and petty cash into veterans' hands have been completed. Bonds in equal multiples of $50 and checks for the remainder due the individual veteran over the total sum divisible by $50 will be sent the veteran by registered mail, beginning June 15.

Must Visit Postoffice

The veteran can convert his service bonds into cash by taking them to his postoffice and endorsing them. If that postoffice has not been designated a disbursing office the postmaster will give the veteran a receipt for his bonds and the bonds will be forwarded to the nearest disbursing postoffice. A check for the amount of the bonds will be returned to the veteran by registered mail.

PROGRAM COMPLETED FOR KIWANIS LADIES' NIGHT

Dr. Howard Jones will speak and Hilaire Haecker will play his accordion to provide the program for the Kiwanis club ladies' night party arranged for this evening. Dinner will be served at 6:30 o'clock in Hanley's tearoom.

IL DUCE ORDERS ARMY TO FORCE END OF WARFARE

Lake Tana, Heart of British Nile Irrigation Program, is Captured

SELASSIE ON DEFENSIVE

Struggle for Control of Mediterranean Predicted By Diplomats

ROME, April 13.—(UP)—Italian soldiers smashed irruptions into northern Ethiopia today to reach Lake Tana, heart of the gigantic Nile irrigation project which is Great Britain's chief interest in the country.

Soon after this was declared, rumors, unconfirmed, but usually reliable sources, came through the capital that Emperor Haile Selassie's war headquarters in the south had been occupied without resistance by an Italian motorized column. Simultaneously, diplomats heard a rumor that Benito Mussolini had ordered northern army to advance Addis Ababa, the capital, to smash finally the Ethiopian resistance.

Early Fall, Expected

Italians predicted the fall of capital within two or three weeks. Marshal Pietro Badoglio, chief of "war" cabinet, said 185,000 Italian troops were in the north. Italian soldiers had taken the Italian tricolor on the northern shore of the lake.

As they did so, he reported, Italian columns occupied the important frontier opposite Galla, an important town on the Italian side, obtaining full control of one of the most important caravan routes between the lake region and the Sudanese interior.

Badoglio admitted the defeat on the southern front of a small detachment of the Aosta division, crack Italian white troops. The Italians lost 45 dead and wounded, he said, against considerable losses for the victors. The Italians were reconnoitering near Walera and retreated in face of superior numbers, Badoglio said.

The Italian occupation of the lake shore was made at the Gopgora peninsula, which juts down into the heart shaped lake from the northern side.

Ethiopians "joyously" welcomed the Italians, Badoglio said. He added that Lake Tana alone.

BECK, NEW DEAL CRITIC, IS DEAD

Pennsylvanian, Who Hit "Rubber Stamps", Stricken

WASHINGTON, April 13.—(UP)—James Montgomery Beck, former solicitor general of the United States and representative from Pennsylvania, died unexpectedly at his home here late yesterday.

Beck, who was 75, had practiced law in Washington since his retirement from the house in 1934. He had been prominent recently as an American Liberty League attorney and as a bitter critic of the new deal.

His physician said the cause of death was coronary thrombosis, a heart ailment. He had appeared well at luncheon, but collapsed later and died at 4:30 p.m.

Beck, in the midst of his third term in the house, announced his retirement on Sept. 13, 1934, because, he said, "under present conditions congress is merely a rubber stamp for the executive, and to be one-fourth-hundredth part of a rubber stamp no longer appeals to me."

Because of his reputation as a constitutional lawyer, Beck had taken an active part in Liberty League opinions regarding constitutionality of New Deal laws. He argued against the TVA, which the Supreme court recently upheld.

SEVERE WINTER WEATHER HURTS STATE FARMING

Plowing Delayed; Winter Wheat Crop to Be Much Smaller Than 1935

COLUMBUS, April 13.—(UP)—The severe winter and obstinate spring have been a serious handicap to Ohio farmers, the monthly bulletin of the federal-state crop reporting service stated today.

Farm work has been delayed several weeks by adverse weather conditions. Little plowing has been done and few oats have been sown. The report also said that far more than the usual amount of corn remained to be husked.

The report also revealed that the 1935 winter wheat crop will be much smaller in Ohio than the 1935 crop. A crop of 31,248,000 bushels is indicated, compared with 42,343,000 bushels last year.

Conditions for growing wheat have been worse in northwestern and north central counties than in other parts of the state. Conditions have been most favorable in southwestern counties.

The wheat crop on Dec. 1 was in fairly satisfactory condition, the report said, but adverse weather weakened it considerably. It is still too early to state definitely how much of last fall's planting will be abandoned but prospects point toward more than the usual loss.

Estimated stocks of grain on Ohio farms, followed with the same date last year, follow:

Wheat, 5,937,000 bushels (last year 6,012,000); Corn, 50,523,000 bushels (26,100,000); Oats, 18,274,000 bushels (8,318,000).

Milk production in the herds kept by Ohio crop reporters averaged 14.9 pounds per milk cow, compared with 14.7 pounds last year, and 13.7 pounds in 1934.

CITY'S WORKERS MAY BRING SUIT FOR BACK WAGES

CHILLICOTHE, April 13.—"Go ahead and sue" will be the administration's response to demands of safety department employees for back wages extending to 1932, Safety Director O. B. Atwell declared today as he and Mayor James E. Ford prepared to meet with F. N. R. Redfern, Adelphi attorney, representing the protesting city employees.

The movement of police and firemen to collect approximately $10,000 "held out" on them in 1932 and 1933 when the former Gunning administration was attempting to balance its budget, reached a climax, Thursday evening at a meeting at No. 1 Fire Engine House.

"If they feel they have a case against the city and want to sue, they can go ahead and sue," Mr. Atwell, as spokesman for the administration, said he would tell Mr. Redfern.

"Should they resort to legal action and collect the $9,000 to $10,000 they claim the city owes them, there's only one thing we can do to keep our budget in order—that's reduce the size or wages of the safety department, or both," Mr. Atwell declared.

His Recommendation "That would be my recommendation to council at any rate," he added, explaining that fixed charges and functions make impossible any appreciable cuts elsewhere.

The movement to collect back pay was started by safety department employees several months ago. At a meeting with city officials recently, the employees were told to make out individual claims and turn them over to the safety director for presentation to Solicitor Kenneth T. Stevens.

Lack of funds made it impossible to find the demarcation line.

for Digestion's sake... smoke Camels

Copyright, 1936, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, N. C.

BARONIAL DINING at the Winter Place Tavern in Boston. Theodore Roosevelt, Enrico Caruso, Henry Cabot Lodge praised its famous fare. Here Camels reign supreme. Nick Stuhl (left), maitre d'hôtel, says: "Camels have the gift of making great dishes more enjoyable. Camels are the most popular cigarette at the Winter Place Tavern."

MEASURING THE EFFECT on digestion of smoking Camels (above). Delicate machines measure the flow of digestive secretions. The evidence shows that smoking a Camel increases the secretion of digestive fluids. The importance of this extra secretion in facilitating digestion is a matter of common knowledge. So smoke Camels... for digestion's sake... and for their costlier tobaccos. Camels set you right!

Smoking Camels Promotes Enjoyment of Good Food and Stimulates Digestion

Our nervous modern life often affects digestion. Mental effort—physical rush—slow down the flow of the digestive fluids. Smoking Camels restores and increases this necessary flow.

Scientific research definitely confirms the fact that Camels encourage digestion in this pleasant way. Enjoy Camels as much as you like. They never frazzle your nerves.

WORKING AGAINST TIME. Bob Duffey, steam-shovel operator, says: "Work comes first—eating, second. You grab a bite when you can. But trust Camels to make even a quick meal taste good and feel good."

Costlier Tobaccos!

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand.

2 cups sugar
3 cups water
2 cups orange juice
2 egg whites, stiffly beaten.
Boil sugar and water 10 minutes. Cool, add fruit juices; freeze to mush.

CHICKEN BAKED IN CREAM

Select a chicken suitable for roasting or stewing, cut into pieces as for frying. Sprinkle generously with salt and pepper and dredge in flour. Arrange the pieces in a deep, heavy skillet in which a generous amount of butter has been heated. Brown the fowl, turning once. Place the chicken in a deep heavy baking pan or dish; add cupful of cream or a can of mushroom soup and enough hot water to almost cover. Cover tightly and bake in a moderate oven (325 degrees F.) until the chicken is very tender. A 4-pound chicken will require almost 2 hours of cooking. Serve with a cream gravy made of fryings in the skillet. Serves four to six.

A Honey Boy bread wrapper accompanied this recipe.

BOSTON CREAM PIE

1/2 cup soft (not melted) butter
3/4 cup sugar
2 eggs

1 1/2 cups cake flour
1 teaspoon cream tartar
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
Milk

Now add this to the dry ingredients and beat hard by hand six minutes, or on an electric beater three minutes. Put into a 9 or 10 inch round cake pan which has been greased and paper lined, and bake 40 minutes in moderate oven. Do not remove cake from pan for five minutes after taking from oven, then turn out on a rack.

When cool, split the cake with sharp knife and place the orange filling between; replace top and cover with whipped cream. Cut in pie shaped pieces when serving.

ORANGE FILLING

HITLER'S SPIRIT ABROAD

THE WHISPERING campaign which some unenlightened souls have started about Secretary of Labor Perkins on the assumption that she is a Jew suggests that the spirit of Hitler is not altogether unknown in the United States. In fact, even before Hitler loomed large on the international scene we had the Ku Klux Klan, an intolerant as the Nazis at their worst.

It so happens that Miss Perkins is a descendant of an old New England family. All of her people, she explains, were Protestant Christians, most of them members of the various denominations found in New England during the seventeenth, eighteenth and nineteenth centuries.

Miss Perkins makes quite clear, however, that she is not eager to disclaim Jewish racial origin. The widely circulated reports have merely inspired her with a desire to set the record straight. "There are no Jews in my ancestry," she says. "If I were a Jew I would make no secret of it. On the contrary, I would be proud to acknowledge it."

THE COLD OF OTHER DAYS

CITIZENS who find it difficult to agree on any given subject will unite in declaring that this has been in all respects a miserable and a severe winter. Apparently, the end is not yet, but by searching through the pages of history back to the year 859, when the Adriatic froze from Cattaro to the Italian shore, we find items of interest that may enable us to endure the unpleasant aspects of the present times.

During the Winter of 1607-8 the ice lay so thick on the Thames that boats were built on it. December 14, 1708, was so cold in New England that trees exploded and grain and many vines were killed. Nine years later, householders in Boston walked out of their garret windows onto the snow. In 1780 the heaviest cannon of the time was moved across the ice of New York Harbor, while Chesapeake Bay was a solid mass from shore to shore and winter birds in many northern areas were exterminated. In comparison, the recent winter has been a mild and even balmy season, a circumstance which does not lessen our eagerness for a chirp of a bluebird and the breath of Spring.

Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

SECRETARY PERKINS LOST $200,000

WASHINGTON — Some of Madame Perkins' chickens are coming home to roost.

Of all the executive departments, her Labor Department is the only one whose appropriation bill was slashed. The House ripped $200,000 out of it, with Chairman James Buchanan and Representative Thomas McMillan, Democratic leaders of the House Appropriations Committee, taking particular glee in wielding the axe.

Sole cause of their sudden zeal for economy was the grudge which Congress holds for the lone lady in the Cabinet.

Miss Perkins' feminine hauteur, her love of lecturing committee members, her lobbying last year to get the Social Security and Labor Relations Boards under her motherly wing, soured the good old-fashioned legislators on Capitol Hill.

The sad thing is that several of the most valuable and efficient agencies of the government — part of Miss Perkins' department — are innocent victims of the feud.

Of the $200,000 cut, $136,000 was taken from the Bureau of Labor Statistics and $26,000 from the Women's Bureau. Both agencies are performing outstanding service and their loss of funds, if permitted to stand, would be disastrous.

NOTE—The age of chivalry is not dead. Senatorial friends of the two bureaus are determined to restore the cuts.

J. HAM LEWIS

The pink whiskers of J. Ham Lewis are turning white, but there has been no change in the Illinois Senator's sense of humor.

When recent Senate debate turned to the subject of oleomargarine, Lewis rose with serious mien and declared:

"Mr. President, may I be pardoned for saying that in one of those cases I was counsel; and may I add that before the Supreme Court, I made an argument so commanding is logic, so powerful in eloquence and so persuasive in presentation that at the close of my argument the Court decided the case for the other fellow without hearing from him."

DISTINGUISHED HITCH-HIKERS

If the City of Tallahassee had known in advance, it would not have let the daughter of the President of Brazil walk through its streets at 1 A. M. lugging her own suitcase, looking for a place to stay.

But Senorita Alzira Vargas gave them no advance notice. In fact it was all a surprise to her. She was on a trip to get really acquainted with the United States. With her were three other Brazilian ladies — the wife, the daughter and the sister of Ambassador Aranha.

In the town of Williston, Florida, their car broke down. Impatient to keep moving, the ladies took a public bus for Tallahassee.

It was all a lark until they were dropped in Tallahassee at 1 A. M. Deserted streets, no taxi, no porter. They picked up their baggage and trudged single file down the main street.

"But anyway," says Senorita Vargas, "we got to know the U. S. A."

THE CAMDEN RUBY MURDER

ADAM BLISS

COPYRIGHT—RELEASED BY CENTRAL PRESS ASSOCIATION

READ THIS FIRST:
Margalo Younger, an actress, is found murdered in the home of Doc Van Every, a collector of rare jewels, with a sharp needle-like instrument at the base of her brain. The only persons in the room at the time of the murder were Van Every, whom she had just met, and Gary Maughan, old friend of hers and an acquaintance of Van Every. Against his wishes, she had been wearing Van Every's famous Camden ruby, which he described as a "murder stone," as he recounted its gruesome history to his audience of two. Detective Keyes questions Maughan, Van Every, the latter's niece, Joyce, who lives in the house, and her elderly companion, Laura Randall, Maughan, who is anxious to help solve the murder, learns from Margalo's maid that a Roy Barrimore has called on the dead actress frequently. Maughan then goes to Detective Keyes' office for further questioning. The detective calls in Alfie Foster, Joyce's fiancé, for questioning. Keyes and Maughan learn that Foster at one time was in love with the dead actress. Laura Randall calls on Detective Keyes to volunteer some information. A phone call to the detective brings the report that Roy Barrimore, close friend of Margalo, has shot himself. Van Every then tells the Camden ruby had been found in Margalo's pocketbook, indicating her interest in the stone before she ever knew Van Every.

(NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY)

CHAPTER 19
I HAD BEEN telling Van Every that Young Barrimore had shot himself.

"My fault that the ruby story got out, Maughan," Van Every declared. "Entirely my fault. I was pleased, of course, that I had the ruby. I told my lawyer—I swear I couldn't keep it to myself. I was pleased as a small boy with a new bicycle. You don't know. As I say, I told my lawyer and he must have tipped off the papers. At any rate when the reporters came to see me about the ruby I told them the story. Who wouldn't? But I was careful in what I said. I didn't tell them from whom I purchased it. The purchase price, yes, but not the former owner. I would have had to tell them too much. As you know, I probably went too far. But now, I'm not so fond of my ruby. I can't bear to look at it. You don't blame me, do you? I shall sell it as soon as I can. I had planned to keep the stone, never let anyone wear it. I was going to let my maid my safety deposit box with my other jewels, glad only to have the ruby. I had it. I admit that last night I was somewhat concerned when Miss Younger took it and put it on. But not so much. The stories about the ruby were just stories, I thought. There could be nothing to them. Now, I know there is something to them. I'm positive of it, as positive as that I'm sitting here talking to you."

"I think you're wrong, Van Every," I said. "Somebody wanted to murder Margalo. She would have been murdered anyway, regardless of the fact that she wore the ruby."

"You can go on thinking that, but I can't. The fact is, I have the ruby around, not going to let Joyce wear it as she wants to, to prove that my theory is false."

"She begged me all during lunch to let her wear it. You must talk to Keyes. You must, Maughan. I

PERFECT DEFENSE
MR. CHARLES KING and I were teamed in one of the Monday duplicate games for members only, at the Knickerbocker Whist club. Our opponents, when the deal shown was played at our table, were the tough team of Lochridge and Kazanjan. At only one table was game made at this time. This was due to an opening spades lead and West's play of the K. giving declarer 5 tricks in spades, 3 tricks in clubs and 2 diamond tricks. Against my partner the opening lead was Lochridge's J of spades, putting us down one trick on a call of 4-spades. Mr. S. S. Lenz, who happened to be kibitzing at our table, and I thought that game was possible. We were right, provided the best subsequent defense is encountered.

A few moments' study shows another method of play which appears promising. Having pulled all opening trumps, lead off declarer's Ace of clubs, followed by the 6, and give West a trick with his K, but leaving two good clubs in dummy for future use. West will lead a low heart and declarer will win a second trick with East's Ace. He must lead back a heart, taking next to last trump from declarer. Lead a low diamond toward dummy. Have East take his Ace, then lead his last heart, taking declarer's last trump. The declarer has won three tricks. The four cards held by each player are shown below.

Declarer can put dummy in with a diamond and can let go two diamonds on dummy's two good clubs. Then declarer will take their fourth trick with the Q of hearts. To defeat the contract East must hold all three of his hearts.

If game is to be made, evidently some other form of offensive play must be followed. Before tomorrow see if North can go game, against an opening lead of spades.

DIET AND HEALTH

Physician Teaches Golfers Physiologic Aspect

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.
I HOPE by the time these lines reach the reader's eyes that the verdure will begin to look exciting, and the voice of the golfer can be heard in the land.

Golf is a game which has attracted the attention of doctors, and golfers should be able to learn from the doctors methods of controlling their bodily reactions which would improve their game.

A clergyman once consulted a specialist in mental troubles on account of repression. He was asked whether he was happily married. He replied, "What has that to do with it? I refer to the repression of bad language at golf." When he was asked to give up his golf, he said, "I am giving up the bad language and then if you meet with no success, give up golf." The clergyman replied that he would prefer to reverse the order and give up his profession. If golf has no better lesson to teach you than that, you are getting no benefit from it, physically or mentally.

Another piece of medical wisdom which, though a mere side issue, is still an important part of the game, was promulgated by the great Scotch occultist, Dr. R. Argyll-Robertson, whose name has come down to us on account of his description of the Argyll-Robertson pupil. His advice about the eye in golf is this: "When seeking a lost ball, go exactly to the spot where you saw it light, then take twenty steps back, and there you will probably find it."

Let no one begrudge the doctors their pleasure on the basis that they are neglecting their duties. As an eminent Scotch medical golfer said, "Though all the medical men in Edinburgh were to stop work for a week to play golf, there would not be a death more in the city."

For his patient, this doctor is able to recommend golf as a form of treatment. Besides the mere fact of exercise and open air, it may help to produce an attitude of mind which will enable him to bear the ills of the world with more resignation.

Have at it, golfer.

WORLD AT A GLANCE

By—Charles P. Stewart

The latest campaign to get Uncle Sam into the League of Nations has not made much progress yet, but it will attract increasing attention as advocates of the plan get more and more effectively into action.

The suggestion is British and the British are brilliant propagandists. They may not attain their objective in this instance, but it never is to be that they will not get what they want when they make up their minds to do so. They will make a formidable effort anyway.

American public opinion undoubtedly assesses the league as a fizzle at present. However, American public opinion was dead against going into the World War when it started. Nevertheless the allies needed us, the British did the propagandizing and in due course we were converted.

Four Marriages Take Place Over Week-end

Three Services Read Easter Sunday Afternoon

At four o'clock Easter Sunday afternoon Miss Virginia Cady, daughter of former Mayor and Mrs. W. B. Cady, S. Scioto-st., became the bride of Mr. Chester Fausnaugh, at a home wedding.

Rev. T. C. Harper, pastor of the United Brethren church, read the nuptial service in the living room before an improvised altar of fern and white candelabra.

Miss Elizabeth Cady attended her sister as maid of honor and Mr. Harold Allen of Pickaway-twp served as best man.

Members of the immediate families, and a few close friends witnessed the ceremony.

The bride chose white satin fashioned along princess lines for her wedding dress. The gown was made with a long-sleeved jacket and high neck. She wore a three-quarter length tulle veil and carried white calla lilies.

Miss Cady was attired in a long pink crepe dress fashioned with an organdie jacket with which she wore a gold turban and slippers. Her flowers were sweetpeas.

Members of the family and wedding guests were entertained informally following the ceremony. They included Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lynch and daughter, Patty, of Columbus; Mrs. J. S. Sines of Ashville; Glen England, Pickaway-twp; Paul Summers, Indianapolis, Ind.; Mr. and Mrs. Jess Fausnaugh, Miss Mary Fausnaugh, Walnut-twp; Miss Martha McCrady, and Rev. and Mrs. Harper.

Mr. Fausnaugh and his bride left for a few days' motor trip and upon their return will reside with Mr. Fausnaugh's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Fausnaugh in Walnut-twp.

Mrs. Fausnaugh was graduated from Circleville high school in 1935 and has been attending the Dickinson Secretarial school in Columbus.

Miss Margaret Belle Buskirk, Mingo-st., and Mr. Earl Mulisano of Columbus were united in marriage Easter Sunday afternoon in Trinity Lutheran church.

The ceremony was read at 1:30 o'clock in the presence of the immediate families by Dr. G. J. Troutman, senior pastor of the church.

Miss Helen Colville, this city, and Mr. Ross Dodd of Kingston attended the couple.

A poudre blue crepe dress with grey accessories was chosen by the bride for her wedding. She wore a shoulder corsage of white gardenias.

Miss Colville wore a navy blue dress with navy accessories. She also wore a shoulder corsage.

A wedding dinner at the home of the families and attendants followed the nuptials.

Mr. and Mrs. Mulisano will be at home to their friends at 424 S. Harris-ave, Columbus.

The bride is a graduate of Circleville high school, class of 1933, and Mr. Mulisano graduated from

Barton and Cook to Appear on Vallee's Hour

Stage and Screen Appears Thursday; Bill Robinson to Feature Next Saturday Hour

Chatterton, star of stage and screen, will headline Rudy Vallee's hour on Thursday. Joe Cook, top-notch vaudeville comedian and radio comedian, and Eileen Barton, 10-year-old singer, are also scheduled for appearances on the program which will be heard at 8 p. m. (EST) over a WEAF-NBC

Chatterton arrived in New York recently after flying her plane from the West Coast where she completed work on a motion picture. The comedy program has been assigned to Joe Cook, laugh star of Broadway successes as "Hold the Horses," "Fine and Dandy,"

"Rags or Shine."

Eileen Barton is Rudy's latest discovery. Although she is still a child, she possesses an extraordinary singing voice. She will be heard in several popular numbers in this appearance which is postponed from the previous week.

Bill Robinson Too
The rapid-fire barrage of toe and tape mingled with song will come from the microphone of Celebrity Night program, Saturday, April 12, when Bill Robinson, tap-dancing star of Broadway comedy and motion picture, will be the guest of George Vallee and Ethel Shutta in the broadcast over a WEAF-NBC network at 10:30 p. m.

The flying feet of this famous dancer have stopped many showmen on Broadway. Best known for his appearances in New York include several editions of the Blackbirds' revue and the musical show, "Brown Buddies."

Of late, he has been making an additional reputation for himself in the movies. His newest pictures include "The Little Colonel,"
"Happy for Love," "In Old Kensington," and "The Littlest Rebel."

In addition to the song and dance act by this week's celebrity, hostess Ethel Shutta will be heard in several novelty numbers and George Olsen will conduct his band both in accompaniment to Miss Shutta and in more of his famous smooth-tempoed numbers.

Some things you may not know about Jack Benny, NBC headliner:
He earned his first dollar clerking in his father's haberdashery store in Waukegan, Ill. . . . Is strangely fond of superstitions for an actor.
Never seen without a cigar.
Some day to find a nickel smoke he really likes. . . . Loves his home and gets his greatest pleasure romping with his year-old adopted daughter. . . . He calls his wife, Mary (Mary Livingstone)
"Doll" and that's her pet name for him, too.

There's good reason why Frank Black, NBC's general musical director, hasn't been late for an appointment in five years. As a student, he broke school track records covering the quarter and half mile.

Musical career in tabloid of Winifred Cecil, Lanny Ross's leading lady in the Show Boat troupe: Began voice culture as a child under private tutors. . . . Later studied under Madame Marcella Semprich and Mrs. Theodore Foedt and graduated from Curtis Institute, Philadelphia. . . . Sang at a command performance in London before the Princess Alice of Athlone and appeared in concert in other European capitals. . . . Made radio debut in the chorus of the Beauty Box Theatre company.

TOP ROW IS DETHRONED BY FAST INDIAN BROOM

SAN BRUNO, Cal., April 13.—(UP)—Activity gradually died away today at Tanforan track, shutting its gates after a highly successful 25-day spring meeting capped by a smashing coronation of a new turf king.

Indian Broom, Major A. C. Taylor's chestnut three-year-old, was the new champion; Top Row, A. A. Baroni's "mighty atom," was the vanquished.

More than 20,000 persons jammed the San Bruno racing plant Saturday to watch Indian Broom, with jockey Basil James up, flash home seven lengths ahead of Top Row and set a new world record of 1:47 3-5 for the mile and a furlong race.

About This And That In Many Sports

Is Season Here?

Few Circleville fans were in the stand Sunday when the Red Birds opened their annual pennant drive. There'll be a lot more next week. The weather was a little snappy, church activities took many, and for a number the baseball season just doesn't seem to have yet arrived.

Several Do Well

The Birdies looked good, the janitor is told, and Bob Klingner twirled a neat ball game—Fullis, Weintraub and Anderson came through with some timely bingles. The Columbusites and St. Paul play again Tuesday.

Beer Teams Rate

This seems to be a splendid season for beers—Three of the first five teams in the American Bowling Congress ranking are supported by breweries. They are Falls City Hi Bru, Indianapolis; Pabst Blue Ribbon, New York, and Monarch Beer, Chicago.

Many Meet Pro

Though the ground was soggy and the air was chilly many Pickaway Country club golfers enjoyed their first taste of the sport this season. Sunday—Young Tom Thompson, who is handling the professional's duties, promises to become very popular—He is a likeable pro and all who have not yet made his acquaintance should do so at once.

Detroit and St. Louis?

The majors open tomorrow—This column would not be surprised to see Detroit or Cleveland play St. Louis for the pennant. The American race should be a 4-team affair with Detroit, Cleveland, Boston and New York fighting it out. The Tigers are a little stronger with Simmons, Cleveland is helped some by addition of Allen but still needs a first class receiver, Boston should go places if its players can forget their prize tags, and the Yankees are always dangerous—St. Louis all the way in the National is the janitor's guess.

OISEN CONFERS ABOUT POST AT U. OF WISCONSIN

COLUMBUS, April 13.—(UP)—Harold G. Oisen, head basketball coach and assistant Athletic director at Ohio State, was at Madison, Wis. today for an interview by the Athletic board of the University of Wisconsin.

Oisen was one of the 11 men invited to Madison for an interview in connection with filling the positions made vacant by the dismissal of Dr. Walter E. Meanwell and Coach Clarence W. Spears.

Oisen, a Wisconsin graduate, has been the most frequently mentioned candidate for the Athletic directorship at the Badger school. Don Peden, Ohio University football coach, also received an invitation for an interview.

Peden has been ill and said last night duties at Athens would prevent him from going to Madison any time this week.

ZACH WHEAT SERIOUS

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 13.—(UP)—Zach Wheat, former major league baseball player, was in a critical condition today from a fractured skull received in an automobile collision. Wheat, a Kansas City police officer, was driving a police car that collided with an automobile, driven by W. E. Alderson, at an intersection.

000 added Marchbank handicap, went to Azucar, Fred M. Alger, Jr.'s, Mouse-colored former steppeler-chaser whom Top Row dethroned in February as the western champion and winner of the $100,000 Santa Anita handicap.

COLONELS WIN PRIZE FOR BEST AA ATTENDANCE

Trautman Defends Sunday Opener; 10,550 on Hand in Louisville

COLUMBUS, April 13.—(UP)—An increase of 75 per cent in opening day attendance figures was offered today by President George H. Trautman of the American association as justification for the experiment of playing the inaugural contests on Sunday. The Association had one of the most successful opening days in its 35 year history yesterday when 35,285 fans witnessed games at Louisville, Indianapolis, Toledo and Columbus.

The attendance at openers in 1935 when three were played on Tuesday and one on a Wednesday was 20,423.

"There has been criticism in some quarters of a Sunday opener," Trautman said, "But I believe the attendance is an answer to whatever objections were raised."

10,550 in Louisville

A baseball renaissance in Louisville was started when 10,550 fans saw the Colonels defeat Milwaukee 6 to 1 behind the masterful six hit pitching of Southpaw Wayne LaMaster.

For the last several seasons Louisville has been the weak link of the Association and during the last winter was threatened with the loss of its franchise.

The crowd at Louisville was the largest at any opener and gave the Kentucky metropolis the "President's cup," awarded annually to the city with the largest first day attendance. A separate trophy will be given when team's in the western division play their first home contests.

Indianapolis was the runner-up with 9,159 fans on hand, as the Hoosiers played to a 2 to 2 tie in 12 innings with Kansas City. The game was called because of the 6 p. m. Sunday law.

The veteran Ray Kolp gave the Minneapolis Millers, 1935 pennant winners, a good start when he hurled them to a 3 to 1 triumph over Toledo before 8,102 fans.

Bob Klingner scattered nine hits as Columbus defeated St. Paul 4 to 2 at Columbus. A crowd of 7,474 witnessed the contest.

Wins in Southwest

WINNING a title his father held 18 years ago, Kim Bannister, Jr., 18-year-old Stanford university freshman from Phoenix, Ariz., is pictured during the Southwest amateur golf tournament which he won at the El Rio club, Tucson, Ariz. More than 150 competed.

TRACK MEET ALL DEAN AS MUEHLBERG WINS

Muehlberg-twp's track and field team, paced by Dean, won a dual meet from Monroe-twp last Friday by a 64-42 score.

Dean won the 100-yard dash, the standing broad jump, tied with Kennedy of his own school for the running high jump, took the 220-yard dash, the running high jump, standing high jump, and the shot put, quite an afternoon for a young fellow.

Dean should prove a threat in the fast-approaching county meet.

MAX BAER AND JIMMY BRADDOCK TO MEET SOON?

SAN FRANCISCO, April 13.—(UP)—Maxie Baer, former world heavyweight champion, popped up again today with bigger and better comeback aspirations than ever.

Reports circulated in San Francisco said Baer expects to be back in a New York ring, perfectly conditioned, in September in a title bout with Champion James J. Braddock.

Madison Square Garden, it was said, has opened negotiations for the fight, which Baer and his manager, Ancil Hoffman, reportedly favor strongly.

Baer intends to put two weeks at Hoffman's gold mine at Barstow, Cal., toughening his hands on an ore shovel.

Thereafter, if Hoffman negotiates a deal with Jimmy Johnston of Madison Square Garden, Max reportedly will go into the mountains for a three months' training campaign.

COLLECTION GONE

NEW YORK, April 13.—(UP)—Joseph Jaffee advertised his $2,000 stamp collection for sale. Last night two well dressed young men rang his doorbell, inspected the collection with cries of delight over its rare specimens, and then pointing revolvers at Jaffee, took the albums away with them.

WHEN AIR IS NOT AIR

NEW YORK, April 13.—(UP)—Air—at least big city air—is not the bodiless substance it seems, a weather bureau report revealed today. New York air in March contained an average of 1.33 tons of soot in every cubic mile, the bureau said. A year ago the city's air carried only 1.23 tons of soot.

THEATRES

AT THE CLIFTONA

After an absence of almost five years, the one and only Charlie Chaplin returned to the screen of the Cliftona theatre yesterday in his long-awaited comedy, "Modern Times." The occasion proved well worth waiting for. Time has not altered his genius. Charlie Chaplin is still the world's funniest comedian.

Far more pretentious than any of his previous pictures, "Modern Times" is also definitely Chaplin's funniest and last night's audience laughed as we have not heard an audience laugh since "City Lights." Charlie's previous film, was released almost five years ago.

Continuing to shun the "talkies" and relying upon novel synchron-again proves that he does not require dialogue.

Tramp In New World

Written, directed and produced by the star, "Modern Times" introduces the familiar serio-comic little figure of the tramp in a new world. He is first seen as a worker in a big steel factory, tightening bolts on a moving track. The factory, with its fantastically huge and complicated machines, is like an evilly enchanted forest to Charlie, and he gets into all sorts of hilarious difficulties here before the monotony of his work "gets" him and he goes temporarily barmy.

Ten leaders of the bloc, favoring turning over almost half of the relief appropriation to Secretary of Interior Harold L. Ickes, and opposed to part of WPA Administrator Harry Hopkins' program, named a committee to circulate the petition among house members.

smiling refusal to comment when he left the White House.

He had been removed from his command by "order of the president."

The war department, however, had said the action was due to the manner in which he criticized the administration's relief policies.

In testimony before a congressional committee, Hagood called PWA funds "stage money" and assailed the administration for using money in a way he considered unwise.

Position Is Same

Thus Hagood, having been disciplined by being placed on a status of "awaiting orders" for about two months, has been restored to a position just as high as that which he vacated.

The order removing Hagood from his previous command was issued Feb. 21. The general has a little more than a year to serve in his new command. He will reach the statutory retirement age of 64 on June 30, 1937.

The war department's action in February stirred up a political tempest in Washington. Rep. Tom Blanton, D., Tex., assailed the war department, particularly Gen. Malin Craig, chief of staff, for what he considered unfair treatment of the general.

Both Democrats and Republicans joined in the criticisms.

dy has been connected with Gondar, the big key town to the north, by a motor road which was built during the advance of the troops, yard by yard as they made their way.

The column which occupied the customs post opposite Gallabat consisted of motor units, camels and tiny "scooter" tanks.

To Force Abdication
Diplomatic circles were excited over the Dessaye-Addis Ababa rumors. They heard that Mussolini hoped to force the abdication of the emperor within two weeks. If he did not abdicate, the reports said, the Italians would press on, take the capital, depose the emperor and establish a puppet regime, subservient to Italy, under the Duke of Nara—Nakonnen, the emperor's 12-year-old second and favorite son.

Usually, in discussion of a puppet regime, the eldest son, Asfawu Quossen, the crown prince, has been mentioned.

In attempting to put the younger lad on the throne, Mussolini would have a "sovereign" who could be taught Italian ways.

No one would be surprised here if it proved true that Dessaye had been occupied. It was known that Italian columns were driving toward the headquarters along all caravan routes from the north, without resistance.

Diplomatists here see the Italian conquest of Ethiopia, even today's developments, as but the beginning of a struggle on a greater scale between Italy and Britain for control of the Mediterranean.

They envisage frankly the possibility that the problem between these two former Mediterranean allies may prove to be susceptible of settlement only by war.

The British believe that in striking at Ethiopia, Mussolini was making only the first move in a desire to get control of the south-eastern Mediterranean. Such a desire, and British knowledge of it, would explain both Italian and British preparations.
